

Addresses are shown in hundred blocks.
HOWARD COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT
DAILY CRIME BULLETIN
THURSDAY, OCT. 16, 2014

BURGLARY COMMERCIAL

BEAT B1 NORTH LAUREL COMMUNITY CENTER, 9400 WHISKEY BOTTOM RD, 10/15 1615:

Unknown suspect(s) broke a lock to a shed. The suspect(s) stole a lawnmower and a cart. 14-104492

BURGLARY NON COMMERCIAL

BEAT C2 9700 SUMMER PARK CT, 9/29 0400 TO 10/15 0200: Unknown suspect (s) entered the residence via unknown means. No sign of forced entry. Nothing was reported missing from the residence. A vehicle was reported stolen from the driveway. 14-104397

BURGLARY NON COMMERCIAL

UPDATE:

Original incident, previously reported: BEAT E2 9600 GLENDOWER CT, 10/15 0154 ATTEMPT:

Three male suspects attempted to open the front door to a residence. The trio fled after being observed by a resident. The suspects were later apprehended in connection to an incident in another jurisdiction. Investigation is continuing. 14-104334

Update: On Oct. 15, Howard County police charged Robert Johnson, 28, and Willie Jones, 30, both of Baltimore, and Jabbar Mickles, 38, of 9767 June Flower Way, Laurel, with three counts each of attempted burglary and one count of theft. All three men are being held at the Howard County Detention Center.